NEW HOSPITAL DISCUSSED AT HALIBURTON

The possibility of erecting a new hospital or adding additional rooms to the existing Red Cross Hospital was discussed this week at a public meeting held at the arena building.

Outcome of the meeting, attended by about 40 persons, was the appointment of a five-man committee — David Bishop, Gerald Dawson, William Emmerson, all of Haliburton; Chester Schwandt, Harcourt, and James Harrison, Maple Lake — to conduct a survey to ascertain funds that would be available to assist in the project.

Existing facilities at the small village hospital were termed inadequate and it was felt that extra rooms and modern equipment are badly needed so that major operations can be undertaken.

At the present time anyone in need of major surgery is required to travel to Lindsay 66 miles away.

BOY DROWNS NEAR HALIBURTON

A 15-year-old Toronto Boy Ari A. Rautalahti, drowned Sunday afternoon in Koshlong Lake near Haliburton.

Police said Rautalahti and a teenage friend, Attila Rekenye, also of Toronto were swimming near their cottage at the south end of the lake when the mishap occurred.

Police said the Rautalahti boy dove off a large rock into about eight feet of water, coming to the surface about fifteen feet from shore. He was followed by his companion. Police said the companion began swimming back to shore and when he looked back, he could not see his friend. Police said the boy told them he assumed Rautalahti was swimming underwater but when he did not come to the surface he became concerned and dove in an attempt to find his friend.

When he was unsuccessful he called for help and a neighbour Eino Robinen of Don Mills dove into the lake. He found the boy about 10 feet from shore, in eight feet of water, face down said police. The boy was given mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and then a respirator was used for three hours, said police, but the boy could not be revived.

He was pronounced dead at 4 p.m. by Dr. H.E. Good, a Haliburton coroner. Police said the drowning occurred about 1.30 p.m.

HERE AND THERE

by FENWICK FINCH

A couple of letters in the mail castigating me about my remarks on "tourist drivers" and my efforts to drive business away from the village. If these people would only sign their mail — I'd be able to give credit where credit is due.

If my remarks about drivers, tourists or otherwise, would only save one life, then my efforts wouldn't be in vain.

Over the past week-end, three dead, and over $35,000 in property damage plus. I don't know how many hospitalized with injuries, serious and otherwise. If that isn't something to be ashamed of, I don't know what is. This loss of life and damage to property is so senseless and unnecessary. This attitude of, "it can't happen to me" is sure taking care of a lot of potential adults.

I still think that if everyone — would report to the Provincial Police, the type of infraction, the license number of the car involved, the time and date and, if the police would follow it up and put the complaint on the motorists' file and when he was involved in an accident, and you can bet it is just a matter of time until this type of driver hits the "jackpot" — it could be brought into court when he makes his appearance and it would give the Magistrate's opinion something to fall back on.

* * * *

Now, for a little more pleasant news, my good friend, Vincent "Duke" Teatro and his wife, Muriel are celebrating their 33rd wedding anniversary on Thursday, July 11. Their many friends in Haliburton and surrounding area wish them all the "best". Incidentally, Dave, their son, who sets up my column also celebrates his birthday on the same day. Congratulations.

* * * *

One of the unsightly things about any election is the smearing of "election posters" all over the County. Unfortunately, the various parties are good at putting them up but have little interest in tearing them down and restoring the landscape to where it was before they came along and "littered".

The Victoria and Haliburton Young Conservatives have taken a step in the right direction — a contest is being run with prizes to the girl or boy bringing in the most posters. Three prizes are offered, $15.00, $10.00 and $5.00.

This is certainly a step in the right direction and something that political parties should have done long ago.

* * * *

I have a couple of stories for you, one from Mrs. K. Lunham and the other from Mrs. Morgan Prentice but they'll have to wait until next week as the space is just about run out. Speaking of stories Mrs. Lunham and I had quite a discussion about "Woman's place in the community". I use the word "discussion" very loosely in this connection as my knowledge is pretty limited and Mrs. Lunham is well informed on the subject. I'll try to sort out some thoughts on this for next week. The men may think I'm letting them down but when Mrs. "L" comes up with her logic it's pretty hard to beat.

* * * *

Untill next week — drive carefully — as they say — "Bring 'em back alive." In spite of what I say — we'll miss you if you ain't around.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Contrary to a recent report, Hasso, my German Shepherd will stay with me at the Log Cabin. We have become so fond of each other and Hasso has apparently outgrown his baby and teenage wildness and seems to have developed into a very charming, gentleman dog. For strangers, he remains in his kennel during day-time; so don't be afraid and come and visit us.

GOOD NEWS FOR BORROWERS

BUILDING BOOM LIKELY

Lower interest rates, which appear to be coming gradually, will benefit everyone, leading economists agree. Already a one-half percentage decline is announced in the bank rate and it is believed that other reductions will follow.

Even if no big drop occurs immediately, there is fairly general confidence that the upward cycle has been arrested. Although you may not stand to win or lose in a major way, or even directly, change in the following situations will definitely affect everyone.

Taxpayers stuck for years ahead with increased interest charges on debts incurred by governments.

Shareholders who have had to wait for dividedends as companies find it necessary and profitable to plow back earnings rather than borrow.

New projects and expansions which have been delayed.

If the flight from bonds is really abating:

Homes will be easier to buy and build.

Loans will be cheaper and easier to get.

Whether the brighter interest rate outlook persists or fades depends mainly on whether the dollar's value seems likely to be protected. Recent word from Ottawa is cheering in this regard.

In the long term, or rather longer term, some indication of the future value of the dollar will be obtained by watching what kind of settlements will be made in the current wage negotiations both in Canada and the United States.

Despite the One Canada concept, and the "go-it-alone" wishes of the majority of Canadians, it should be remembered that our economy is exceedingly closely tied to that of the United States, and to a lesser degree to conditions throughout the world.

The Editor

Dear Sir:

We would like to concur with the remarks as noted in the last two paragraphs in your editorial of June 20, 1968 regarding red tape and frustrations in dealings with most government offices.

In our opinion Government (so called) has backed itself into a hopeless corner from which there is no escape.

Yours truly
Reg Booth

RAISED $100,000 FOR ARENA

It is not often you think of an arena, during these hot summer days, however this past week we had an article sent to us from one of our readers — it brings the arena issue to light once again.

It tells of a tiny village in Alberta called Consort, they think big — really big.

The town has less than 700 people. But more than 1,000 people turned out Wednesday night for dinner, at $100 a plate.

The guests in Consort — 160 miles east of Red Deer — included Chicago Black Hawk superstar Bob Hull, Premier Ernest Manning, two other provincial cabinet ministers and Judy LaMarsh, former secretary of state in the federal government.

The party raised $100,000 for a new town complex including a hockey rink, curling ice, bowling alleys and a town hall.

The old arena and curling rink was burned down by an arsonist. They had taken 14 years to build.

So one man, Harry Kroeger, got mad and got busy. Kroeger, 51, president of the board of trade, took three months off from his job as a Massey Ferguson farm implement dealer to make sure Consort succeeded.

He galvanized the town into action, to raise $100,000 to add to the $130,000 insurance coverage.

"In 33 years of being premier and part of the provincial government, I've never seen an effort like this before," Premier Manning told the town.

The town made a day out of it with chuckwagon and motorcycle races, baseball games and ferris wheel rides for the kids.

During the three months he worked setting up the banquet Kroeger made three trips east to Toronto and Ottawa, seeking the help of big agencies for ideas. He received only his air plane fare. The rest of his expenses came out of his own pocket.

The fever of the project got to everybody in Consort.

Douglas Knight, 10, wanted to see Hull so badly he started digging up small trees and selling them to people. He made his target of $100 and pitched in to help his sister Pamela 9. raise some money.

His sister collected $25 worth of pop bottles, his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Knight, pitched in with some money. Pamela then got the rest by borrowing $50 from the bank.

Hull, Kroeger added, was the only sports figure at the dinner. "We wanted the best," he said, "and nothing to detract from it."

The people of Consort built an airstrip so chartered planes from Calgary and Edmonton could fly guests in.

Kroeger said to attract the crowds to this Eastern Alberta community "it had to be big to interest big people. We expected to see what they built," he said.

Along with the new complex Consort is experiencing other improvements and it points to the fact that while the town is small in population — that ends there.

They've got BIG ideas.

"LAKE OF BAYS LINES"

By Ross Leslie

I hope that Ed Mason, of Lake of Bays Marine will give me a free ride in his nice Cessna aircraft. I can reciprocate, and give him a thrilling ride on my new motorcycle.

I'm sure that you are all familiar with Dorset's scenic observation tower and picnic site. Did you know that Minden has a nice lookout? The only trouble is that nobody is permitted there after 9 PM.

Good to see the write-up in the Globe and Mail on The Croft. This is quite a gift shop that Penny Stiver and Christine Livingston operate. I'm particularly interested in those unique rulers they have been selling. They are composed of many sections of different woods, all identified. The Croft has been definitely helping to put Baysville on the map.

It is also good to see that the OPP are patrolling the Glenmount Road. Also, our local policeman, Dan Watson.

Who, exactly, is behind the Fight Medicare Committee, of Baysville? Good Question. Do you think that Ontario will have medicare in a year? Could be.

There are still quite a few water skiing idiots at Lake of Bays. They buzz docks and beaches, and operate after dark. Also to be observed are litter bugs having fun with the roads. Perhaps police ghost cars will fix some of them.

Murray McEachern, president of the Dorset Chamber of Commerce is very pleased with the pulling power of Dorset's new LCBO store. And I guess that firewater is real fun — or is it?

Three deaths on that awful stretch of Highway 35 between Dorset and Dwight last summer — probably more fatalities again this summer. Take it easy.

by William J. Martin

Dear Sir: I've heard all sorts of rules of thumb about the amount a person should spend on a house. I earn $6,000 a year. What's the maximum I should pay for a home?

J.A.C.

My rule of thumb is double your annual income and 2½ times as much if the house is absolutely irresistible. So you ought not go any higher than $12,000 unless you just can't resist it and then your absolute limit is $15,000.

Dear Sir: A friend of mine is going to buy a new washer-dryer combination that will run her maybe $350. Now, although they have the money set aside in a savings account, they're not going to use that money for the washer-dryer. Instead they're going to borrow the money. I told her this was silly, but she said her savings account is drawing interest and she doesn't want to disturb it. Don't you agree that is ridiculous?

Mrs. S. V. R.

What you're saying, I suppose, is that your friend will be paying more interest on the money she borrows that she will be drawing on the money in their savings accounts, and you're certainly right. This little transaction will cost your friend more than if she drew her savings and used them for the washer-dryer.

BUT !!

This is not an uncommon transaction at all. Many, many people have come to realize that while they can discipline themselves to meeting the monthly payment demanded of them on a loan or a credit purchase, they cannot discipline themselves to repay to their savings account the money they took from it to make a cash purchase.

Please!
Only you can prevent forest fires

In other words, I'm sure your friend realizes that if she takes that money from her savings account, she probably won't pay it back; so she's actually protecting her savings by borrowing the money for the washer-dryer.

LET HIM TAKE HIS TIME

In recent years, there has been a tendency to give babies solids earlier and earlier as though giving them grown-up foods will make them grow up faster and prove they are better than the baby next door, who is taking his time with new foods.

Most specialists in baby feeding do not feel that very early solids are really necessary for all babies, though there are a few exceptional babies who may need them, says the federal health department publication, "The Canadian Mother and Child".

Be guided by your doctor's advice or that of your child health centre, not by what seems to be the current fashion in your neighbourhood.

BIG FISH ENTERED IN ONTARIO CONTEST

A 36 pound Lake Trout, measuring 44 inches in length and caught by Donald Clarke of Edina, Minnesota in Lake of the Woods, has been entered in the Big Fish Contest conducted annually for the past ten years by The Ontario Federation of Anglers & Hunters and Molson's Brewery (Ontario) Limited.

Norman Bain of Toronto caught his entry of a 28 pound Lake Trout in Lake Temagami and Mrs. James L. Trask of the Canadian Forces Base, North Bay battled her 20½ pound Lake Trout for almost an hour on Victoria Day. She hauled it out of Blue Lake, McAuslan Township using a Mitchell reel and a six pound test monofilament line with a rapala lure.

A 35 pound 8 ounce Maskinonge caught by Don Harriman of Colony Court, Indianapolis, fishing in Bald Indian Bay, Lake of the Woods, was actually pulled into his boat twice. On the first try the Muskies broke through the net and fell back into the water carrying with him the bait and line. Frantic minutes followed while rod and reel were threaded safely through the tangled netting. Then the process of bringing the fish, still on the 6 pound line, safely back to the boat began. Meanwhile the landing net was repaired as well as possible and the fish was brought back into the boat for the second time. Ross White of Owen Sound leads the Rainbow Trout class with a 12 pound 3 ounce Rainbow Trout caught in the Sydenham River and measuring 30 inches.

A 12 pound 6 ounce Walleye has been entered by Mr. Albert Laperle of Cornwall. It is believed by the local people to be the largest Walleye ever landed in Cornwall area waters and measured 33½ inches with a 19½ inch girth.

Fred Coxhead of Toronto is running second in the Walleye class with his 11 pound 14 ounce fish caught at the mouth of the Moon River in Parry Sound District. The largest Northern Pike entered to date is 19 pounds 9 ounces caught in Cooke's Bay, Lake Simcoe by Camille Gautreaux of Downsview.

The contest opened April 27th and runs until November 17th. In addition to the Master Angler Badge which is awarded for fish entries meeting the minimum weight requirements for the species, all entries are eligible for the Molson's cash awards totalling $3,200.00.

Entry forms can be obtained by writing to the Big Fish Contest Box 309, Willowdale, Ontario.

SNOWMOBILES DON'T NEED LICENSE

An interpretation of amendments of the highway traffic act indicates that because snowmobiles are classified as "motorized snow vehicles" and not as a motor vehicle under the act, it will not be necessary to have them licensed when the new amendments come into effect September 1.

All motor vehicles, other than motorcycles, must be equipped with a speedometer in good working order.

No person shall ride on or operate a motorcycle unless they are wearing an approved helmet.

All farm tractors and self propelled impement husband-moving vehicle red triangle sign attached to the rear.

No person can operate a directional signal unless making a turn.

It will be illegal for a car-drawn trailer or boat trailer to be occupied while in transit.

As of November 1, before a license transfer will be made on a used car sale, there must be a certificate of mechanicaly, when on a highway or being towed, are to have a "slow fitness by a dealer or licensed mechanic.

Now applicable is the ruling that magistrates can suspend a driver's license up to 30 days for speeding 30 m.p.h. or more over the limit.

IN MEMORIAM

EASON — In loving memory of dear father and grandfather, Wilfred Eason who passed away July 9, 1967.

God took him home, it was his will,

But in our hearts we love him still;

His memory is as dear today
As in the hour he passed away.
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

—Ever remembered by daughter Shirley, son-in-law Ron, and grandsons Brian and Doug.

EASON — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Wilfred Eason who passed away July 9, 1967.

He is gone but not forgotten
And as dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of him are always near.

—Ever remembered by daughter Margaret, son-in-law Robert and grandsons Robby & David.

EASON — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Wilfred Eason who passed away July 9, 1967.

What would I give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see his smile,

That meant so much to me.
We cannot Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee.

—Ever remembered by wife Pearl, sons Garry and John.
